rriving on campus is the first step. From moving our stuff into dorm rooms, having the everimportant ID card made, learning our way around campus, to buying essential supplies, each moment is a milestone toward the final exam.

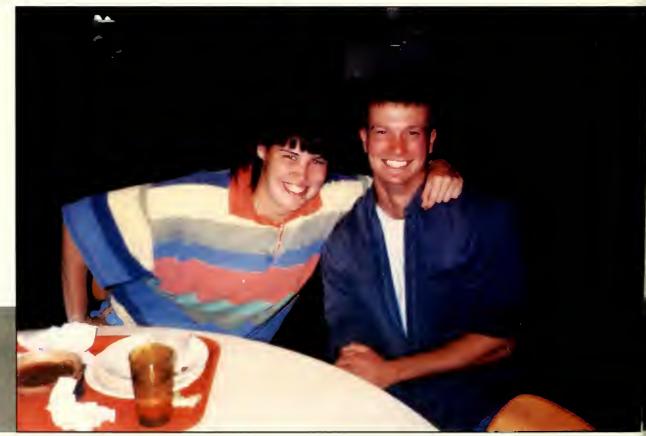

ot every event tests us. Friends help us cope and allow us to build fond memories of carefree college days.

Some days just getting out of bed to go to class is the ultimate test.

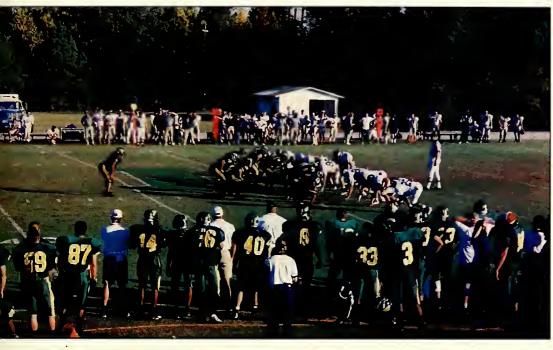

omecoming 1997 was a record-breaking affair.
More than 1,300 fans turned out to watch the Monarch football team defeat Greensboro College 41-12.

ur first semester comes to a close with final exams, then we travel home for the holidays to relax and celebrate with family and friends.

Properties of opportunities to learn, to serve others, and to worship.

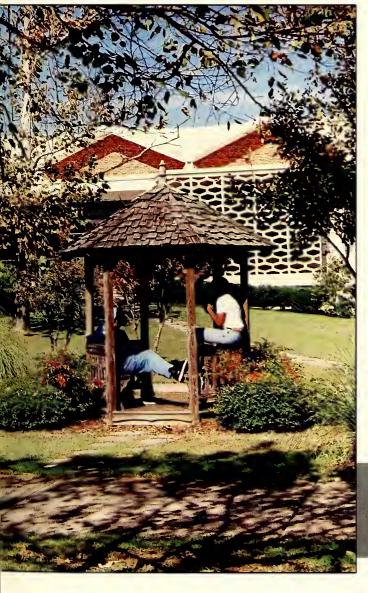

riendships formed at Methodist will undoubtedly pass the test of time.

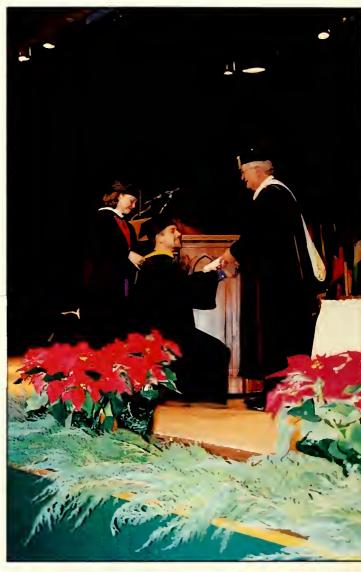

e know we've passed the final exam when we reach the goal we've been striving for— graduation day.

Homecoming 1997

Jollow the Yellow Brick Road

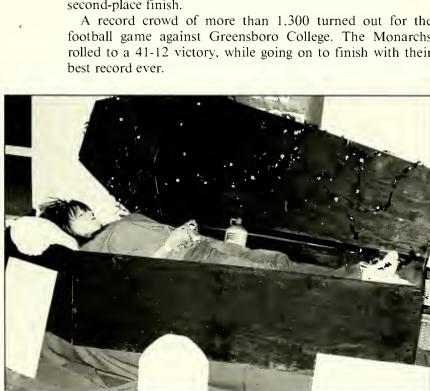

Homecoming 1997 proved to be a rousing success, with the inclusion of a full week of activities leading up to the big day Nov. 1.

Nearly 250 attended a bonfire held on Oct. 29. In addition, dorms sponsored "penny wars" which raised more than $500 for RHA programs like alcohol awareness and rape prevention. On Halloween, the cafeteria staff dressed in costumes while serving meals to students, including a steak dinner. That night, "Midnight Madness" officially opened the Monarchs' basketball season.

On Homecoming Day, the Education Department hosted a breakfast featuring the North Carolina Teacher of the Year. The fifth annual William P. Lowdermilk Golf Tournament teed off early that morning, while the women's volleyball team lost a close game to Shenandoah.

The men's soccer team hosted Mary Washington, but lost 3-1. The women's soccer team won their season finale against Chowan 4-0. In addition, the cross country team, competing at the conference championships at Shenandoah, ran away with a second-place finish.

A record crowd of more than 1,300 turned out for the football game against Greensboro College. The Monarchs rolled to a 41-12 victory, while going on to finish with their

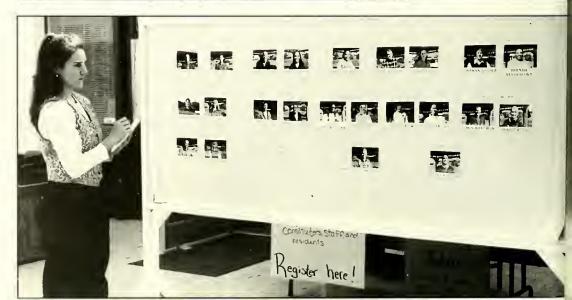

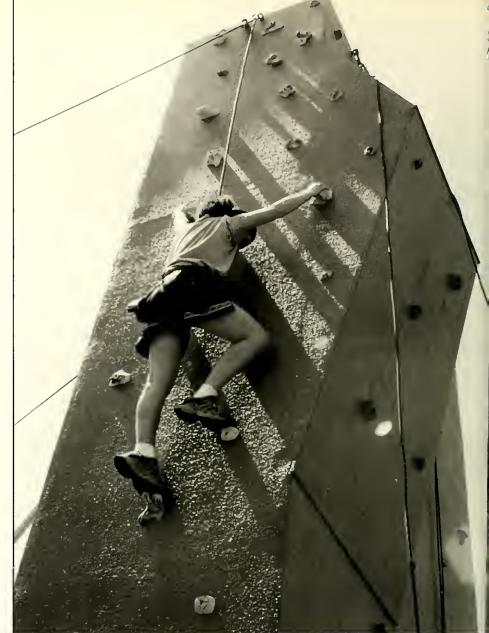

The 1997 Homecoming Dance was held at the Holiday Inn Bordeaux, and featured the Band of Oz. The Homecoming King was Darrien Tucker and the Queen was Sema Hashemi. The rest of the court included First Runner Up-King Nate Weston; First Runner Up-Queen Nicole Vrentas; Second Runner Up-King Felix Sarfo-Kantanka; and Second Runner Up-Queen Brandi Byrd.

25th winter commencement celebrated

Seventh District Congressman Mike McIntyre addressed the winter graduates of Methodist College Dec. 12, 1997. McIntyre challenged his fellow citizens to accept the responsibility that goes with freedom and seize every opportunity to help their fellow man.

"I have three words for you," said the Lumberton native. "Reject senseless selfishness. Inject a true sense of responsibility. Project yourself into the future. Only when we do these things will we realize the American dream."

After reciting His Rule by John Wesley: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can...", McIntyre closed by quoting Thomas Jefferson: "To do our fellow man the most good in our power, we must lead where we can lead, and still go with them, always looking for the favorable moment to help our fellow man take another step forward."

College President Elton Hendricks accepted the flag of Burundi from Dominique Langira, and awarded the Sam Edwards Award to May 1997 graduate JoAnn Bagley, denoting her selection as the outstanding Evening College graduate of 1997.

In the morning baccalaureate sermon entitled "The Ultimate You," Dr. Samuel J. Womack told the graduates, "What gives life meaning and points us to eternal joy is love. Find a sovereign good and give yourself to it." The text was based on I Corinthians 13.

Womack concluded by saying, "If I could be granted a special wish, I would like to give each of you a magic mirror in which you could see 'the ultimate you' that God perceives."

Golf resort entrepreneur addresses May graduates

Robert H. Dedman's advice to the 142 seniors in the college's 35th graduating class May 10, 1998, was, "Look after all your lives."

In an address entitled, "Keeping Your Balance," Dedman used a wooden chair as a prop, describing the chair legs as the four qualities that he said constitute a plan for balanced living. He said a fulfilling life requires a balance between one's family, job, church, civic, athletic, and cultural lives. He advised graduates to: 1) PLAN to work and work to plan your lives; 2) never stop LEARNING; 3) keep a positive ATTITUDE and a sense of humor; and 4) be NICE to others and cultivate long-term, win-win relationships with friends.

Dedman concluded by offering two bits of philosophical advice — quoting and interpreting former New York Yankee Yogi Berra and the ancient Greek philosopher Plutarch. He said Berra once said, "When you come to a fork in the road, take it." In other words, be decisive. Dedman then quoted Plutarch: "Only a fool learns from the mistakes of others." Dedman said Plutarch's words could be paraphrased: "People who want to succeed should look for good role models and learn what works."

A lifelong Methodist, Dedman is the founder and chairman of the board of Club Corporation International based in Dallas, Texas. ClubCorp operates 260 golf resorts and country clubs throughout the world. Its North Carolina holdings include Pinehurst Resort and Country Club, Capital City Club, and the Carolina Club. Dedman is also one of America's leading philanthropists, and currently chairs the board of trustees at Southern Methodist University.

The baccalaureate sermon was given by the Reverend R. Carl Frazier, Jr., pastor of Hay Street United Methodist Church in Fayetteville. The sermon, entitled, "So...What Now?" was based on Romans 12. He referred often to the second verse, which reads, "And be not conformed to this world, but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God." Frazier said the answer to the question, "What now?" can be found in the values and beliefs of the Christian church. "You have been saved by grace through faith, and no one can separate you from the love of God."

Dr. Elton Hendricks, president, presented an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree to Dedman for his philanthropy in the field of higher education. He also presented a Methodist College Medallion to Alan Porter, professor of music, who retired after 35 years at Methodist College.

Monarch football team posts record-breaking season oach Jim Sypult's football team racked up a program-best 9-1 season record in 1997. Propelled by a 6-0 start, the Monarchs climbed as high as a #10 ranking in the nation before finishing ranked number 20 at the end of the season.

With only 16 teams invited to the NCAA-III playoffs (four from each of four regions), Methodist was left out in favor of four undefeated teams in the South Region.

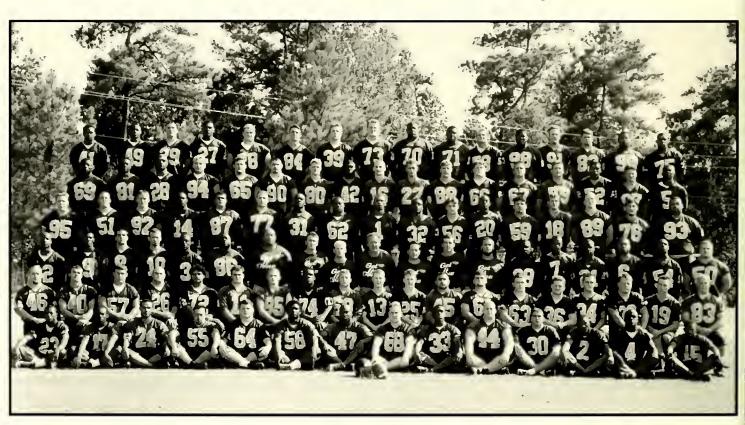

The Monarchs dominated perennial power Frostburg State 40-12 to finish the season undefeated (5-0) at home for the first year in the program's nine-year history. Methodist has won 14 of its last 17 home games, and 13 of 16 overall.

The win over Frostburg, Methodist's first in six tries, serve as some consolation for the Monarchs' lone setback. Methodis had suffered its only loss of the season, 31-12, at Ferrum earlies in the year. Frostburg had beaten Ferrum 31-0.

For the 12 Monarch seniors, the win also meant a 25-1 record (.625) over their four-year career.

Victories included a fifth-straight season-opening triump over Chowan and first-ever road wins at Salisbury State an Hampden-Sydney. The Monarchs overwhelmed Greensbor 41-12 to win their homecoming game for the fifth straight yea and finish 4-0 against North Carolina programs.

In the NCAA-III's final regular season team statistics, Methodist finished 17th in turnover margin (+1.30) and 30th i scoring defense (14.5 per game).

Lady Monarchs finish 3rd in DIAC

oach Phil Stephenson's young Lady Monarch soccer squad finished 4-2 in conference play to end up third in the seven-team DIAC.

With the graduation of 15 seniors over the past two seasons, Methodist just didn't have enough weapons left to capture its 10th DIAC title in 13 seasons.

The Lady Monarchs suffered their two league losses to eventual conference champs Shenandoah (1-0) and North Carolina Wesleyan (3-0).

Methodist, 8-10 overall, claimed DIAC wins at Christopher Newport (4-0) and Greensboro (2-1) in September. In October, the Green and Gold blanked league foes Averett (9-0) and Ferrum (4-0) at Monarch Field.

Despite seeing limited action due to injuries, senior forward and team co-captain Casey Nuckols led the Lady Monarch attack, registering 16 goals and three assists for 35 points.

Nuckols played much of the season with a fractured foot, but still earned First Team All-DIAC accolades for the third consecutive year. Senior midfielder Tiffany Sprouse recorded a team-high seven assists in league action on her way to First Team All-DIAC honors.

In the backfield, sophomore sensation Meegan Kloosterman was promoted from her Second Team All-Conference status of a year ago to First Team level in 1997.

Senior co-captain Corene King was named a Second Team All-DIAC back.

Freshman goalie Jessica Kupper played every minute of her rookie season and collected five shutout victories, including three in DIAC competition.

Sophomore forward Trisha Clinton finished second on the team in scoring, with 19 points on six goals and seven assists. She attempted a team-high 79 shots.

At the Athletic Awards ceremony at the end of the year, Nuckols was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Sprouse was honored with the Coach's Award.

Monarch soccer places two on All-Region team unior midfielder and team captain Paul Smith and senior forward Kemal Kansu landed on the Second Team NCAA-III All-South Region.

Smith and Kansu paced the Monarchs in scoring throughout the 1997 campaign. Smith finished with 15 goals and eight assists for 38 points, while Kansu had 10 goals and 10 assists for 30 points.

With the loss of two recruiting seasons due to coaching changes, Coach Adrian Blewitt's first pack of Monarchs lacked depth and struggled to an 8-10 overall record. The squad's 2-4 conference mark placed it fifth in the seven-team DIAC.

The 8-10 record includes a 1-1 mark against eventual Final Four teams. The Monarchs beat 1996 National Champion and 1997 Runner-up New Jersey 3-1 early in the season.

Smith and Kansu represented Methodist on the First Team All-DIAC. Freshman defender Brad Leach earned Second Team distinction.

At the annual Athletic Awards, Smith was named the Most Valuable Player. Senior Christian Treney was named Most Improved Player.

Lady Monarch volleyball team continues to improve ethodist's women's volleyball team finished the 1997 campaign with a 12-19 record overall, with a 2-10 seventh place finish in the DIAC. The program tallied more victories than had been amassed during the previous three seasons combined.

Senior and lone four-year starter Georgette Singleton was the DIAC runner-up in attack percentage (.372), finishing behind three-time DIAC Player of the Year Brenda LaFlamme of Averett.

Junior Julie Barnes was the DIAC runner-up in aces, averaging 0.62 per game. She finished sixth in assists with 5.74 per game. Coach Brenda Hillman, in her third season at Methodist and 12th overall as a head volleyball coach, recorded her 200th victory. She currently sports a 204-200 (.505) career mark.

The Lady Monarchs hosted the 1997 DIAC volleyball tournament, where they were eliminated by eventual champion Greensboro in the first round.

At the annual Athletic Awards, Torrie McNair was named Most Valuable Player, and Singleton received the Coach's Award.

Monarch cross country finishes second in DIAC

he Methodist College cross country squad concluded its season with a second-place finish at the six-team DIAC meet held at Shenandoah.

Despite no longer having their three all-conference runners from a year ago, the Monarchs claimed conference runner-up honors for the third straight season.

For Methodist, which began the season with only three runners, it was the team's best performance under new coach Jennifer Jacobsen.

The Monarchs placed three rookies on the Second Team All-DIAC. Freshman Kurt Fisher finished 10th, followed by sophomore Jon Adams (11th) and freshman Andy Duer (13th).

At the annual Athletic Awards, Kurt Fisher was awarded the Most Valuable Runner, Nick Whited was honored with Most Improved, and Matt Mura received the Coach's Award.

Seniorless Monarchs struggle

espite a record-breaking season the previous year, the 1997-98 men's basketball team suffered the loss of several seniors and struggled to an uncharacteristic 7-16 record. Among the team's bright spots was the performance of junior Montrell McNair.

McNair earned First Team DIAC distinction for the second consecutive year while averaging 22.2 points per game to finish second in the league in scoring. He earned Columbus Multimedia National Player of the Week accolades in December, and went on to become the 16th member of Methodist's 1,000-

McNair was also chosen the team's Most Valuable Player at the annual Athletic Awards.

Another positive accomplishment for the Monarchs was the selection of team manager Taplie Coile as one of the recipients of the 1998 Sears Directors' Cup Postgraduate Scholarship Awards, which is worth $5,000. Coile, a student assistant in the Sports Information Office and the varsity basketball team manager for four years, graduated in May with magna cum laude honors.

Lady Monarchs narrowly miss NCAA tournament berth

Ithough they were seniorless and short-handed, the Methodist College women's basketball tcam just fell short of a berth to the 1998 NCAA-III National Tournament. The Lady Monarchs lost to 24-4 Christopher Newport 93-91 in overtime in the DIAC Tournament championship game.

The two-point overtime loss was enough to stop first-year coach DeeDee Jarman's squad from earning the DIAC's automatic bid to the national tournament.

Sophomore center Jennifer Snead led the charge with 30 points and 13 rebounds in the title game. She finished with a three-game total of 61 field goal attempts to set a new tournament record. Snead and freshman point guard Sissy Sink were named to the DIAC All-Tournament Team.

The 16-11 Lady Monarchs not only finished second in the DIAC Tournament, but also ended up tied for second in the league's regular season standings with Greensboro. Junior Amy Todd was selected to the First Team AII-DIAC for the second consecutive season, while Snead was a second team pick.

Monarchs compete at nationals enior Jody McIntyre ended her successful four-year track and field career at Methodist with a sixth-place finish in the javelin at the 1998 NCAA-III Championship in St. Paul, Minn. The Ontario native hurled the javelin a program record 132'6" to earn All-America honors.

McIntyre entered the event ranked 18th in the nation, but needed to place in the top eight for All-America accolades.

"I was very confident that if anyone could have a cool head and improve upon their throws at nationals, it would be Jody," said coach Jennifer Jacobsen. "She's that kind of athlete."

McIntyre won both the javelin and the hammer at the Mason-Dixon Conference Meet at Newport News, Va., in May, while finishing second in the shot put.

The Methodist men had league champions in junior William Ray in both the long jump and the triple jump, and senior Bradley Hicks in the pole vault with a meet-record 16'6". That leap ranked Hicks first in the country before an ankle injury kept him from scoring at nationals.

ethodist made its 15th NCAA-III Tournament appearance in 18 years, going 2-2 at the 1998 South Regional to grab runner-up honors. Coach Tom Austin's second-seeded Monarchs suffered an opening round loss to third-seeded Emory 7-6. The Green and Gold bounced back to eliminate fourth-seeded Greensboro, 4-1, and Emory, 5-1, to advance to the championship game.

Methodist fell to top-seeded host North Carolina Wesleyan, 3-2, in the final contest to end its campaign with a 32-13-1 record.

For Austin's eight-man senior class, it was the end of an impressive 134-51-2 run with three DIAC championships over four years. That class also notched Austin's 500th and 600th career coaching victories.

Shortstop Neil Barwick, second baseman Starsky Norman, left fielder Kevin Kinel, and designated hitter Pat Seccafico will all be missed, along with pitchers Chris Qually, Jason Dorsett, Sean Gardner, and Nathan Jumper.

"These seniors have been model citizens," Austin said.

"They're good young men and they're good players. I've be here 19 years, and I just don't know if I've ever been around better group of seniors."

The Monarchs ended up ranked 10th in the nation, according the to final NCAA-III poll. They won the Savannah Art at Design Classic and the DIAC regular season titles.

Sophomore pitcher T.R. Plank hurled his way to a 9-0 reco and a 2.13 ERA on his way to NCAA-III Third Team A American accolades. Plank became Methodist's 30th A American in the baseball program's 30th season.

Barwick and junior utility man Billy Chapman earned Fi Team All-DIAC distinction. Qually and sophomore third barman Scott St. Clair made the Second Team.

Monarchs continue to reign

Men capture fifth straight NCAA-III title

oach Steve Conley's Monarchs captured their eighth NCAA-III Championship in nine seasons and their fifth in a row at Jekyll Island, GA.

Methodist finished with a score of 295-292-277-279 — 1,143, easily outdistancing the rest of the 23-team field led by runner-up Otterbein (1,179), Allegheny (1,182), Greensboro (1,183), and UC-San Diego (1,185). The Monarchs also set a 72-hole national tournament record, while also surpassing its national tournament record for the lowest round (284 last year) easily twice (277 and 279 this year).

Freshman Chad Collins (75-71-68-69 — 283) became the seventh Methodist individual champion, the most of any Division III program. He was followed by senior Brett Carman (73-72-71-68 — 284) who finished second, and sophomore team co-captain and defending NCAA-III champion Brion McLaughlin (74-70-71-70 — 285), who captured third. All three earned First Team All-America honors.

Senior co-captain Chris Eaves (82-80-67-72 — 301) had the tournament's lowest round (67), and went on to tie for 32nd in the 120-golfer event. Senior Pete Barron (73-79-74-78 — 304) tied for 40th.

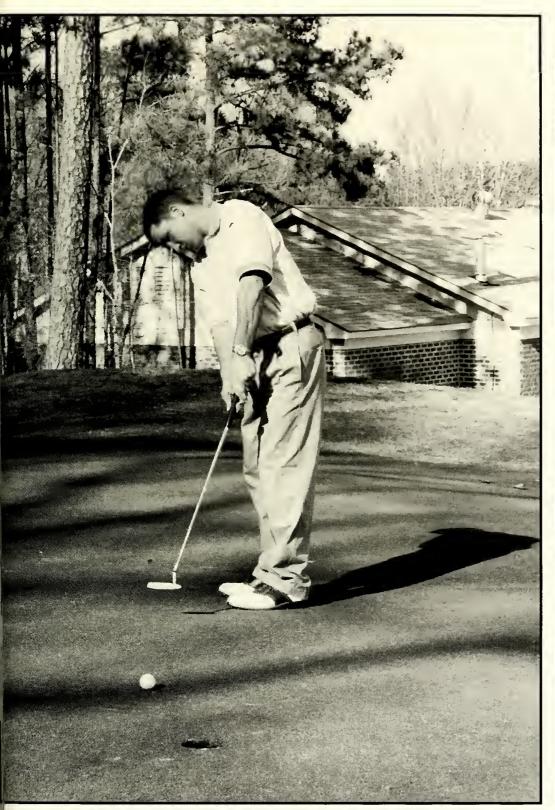

The Monarchs also captured their 15th DIAC title in 18 years and sixth straight, slipping past runner-up Greensboro 441-445 in the 27-hole event. Methodist was the only team to land all five of its golfers in the top 10. Second in the 34-golfer event, Chris Eaves missed medalist honors by one stroke. Chad Collins finished third, and Brion McLaughlin tied for fourth. Brett Carman tied for seventh, and Pete Barron tied for tenth. Eaves, Collins, and McLaughlin earned First Team All-DIAC accolades, while Carman and Barron earned Second Team All-DIAC distinction.

Collins received the team's Most Valuable Player Award at the end-of-year Athletic Awards.

Lady Monarchs recapture national crown

New coach leads team to 11th title

he Lady Monarchs, under new head coach Kim Kincer, brought home their 11th national championship in the 13-year history of the program, registering an exciting five-stroke victory at the NCAA-II/III Tournament in Allendale, MI.

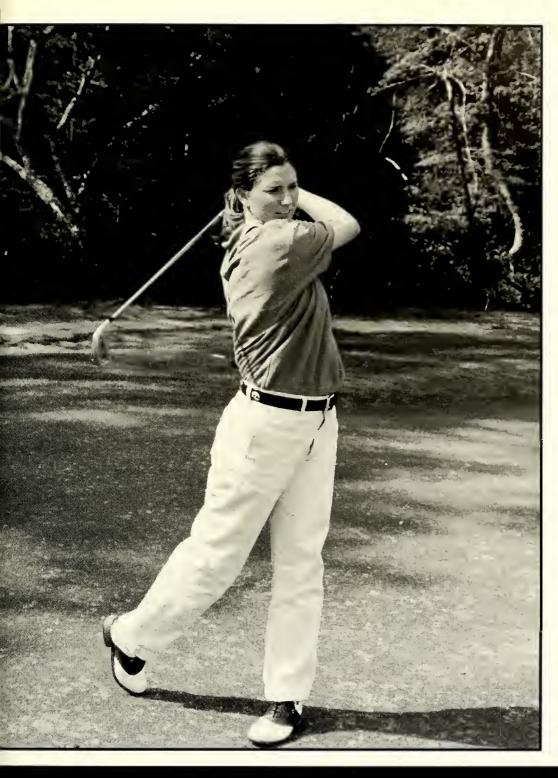

Methodist (312-317-306-319 — 1,254) easily improved upon its totals from the previous two combined Division II and III championships (1,286 in 1996 and 1,318 in 1997). Seniorless Methodist was paced by individual runner-up Tracey Gage (73-78-73-79 — 303), whose tournament average (75.6) smoked her regular season average (78.1). The junior team cocaptain has finished in the top 10 at all three NCAA-II/III Championships.

Freshman Carol Brogan (78-79-76-79 — 312) tied for fourth while junior Christine Arriola (78-82-80-82 — 322) tied for 13th. Sophomore Stacey Smith (83-81-81-79 — 324) tied for 18th, and junior team co-captain Tanice Nilson (86-79-77-83 — 325) tied for 20th in the 63-golfer event.

Sheryl Crow grew up in a rural community in Missouri. When she was about six years old, she discovered she could play the piano by ear. That was all it took. Before long, that musical talent, combined with a fascination with the music of artists as diverse as the Rolling Stones and Billie Holliday, led Sheryl to pursue her music full-time. Piano and organ became her instruments of choice. She picked up the guitar during her years of playing in rock bands in high school. She began to develop her songwriting skills early on, drawing from every aspect of her life. Her latest album, Sheryl Crow, spent more than a year on the charts.

Tidal is 10 timeless songs. This golden album by Fiona Apple spent more than a year on Billboard's best-selling chart. "My album is called Tidal because all this success has hit me like a tidal wave, but also because 'tidal' refers to ebbing and flowing, and that's what life really is — a constant ebb and flow," Apple says. She cut a demo tape while she was in Los Angeles to spend time with her father and finish high school. Back home in New York, one of the demos fell into the hands of a friend who baby-sat for a music industry executive. Fiona's friend gave the three-song demo to the executive, who then played it for producer Andrew Slater. The rest is history.

The 11 songs on This Fire, Paula Cole's top-selling album, overflow with personal emotions and autobiographical details. As one critic said, "This Fire announces the arrival of a writer, singer, and musician of exceptional talent and power. It is filled with shockingly bold writing and singing that is gentle and whispering at one extreme of the pendulum, and vicious at the other." Paula grew up in Rockport, a small Massachusetts town with a strong artistic influence.

The Verve Pipe is an incredible rock/pop/alternative band from East Lansing, Michigan. Their first single, "Photograph," received a lot of air time and became a fairly big hit. But its success cannot be compared with their latest single, "The Freshman." That song enjoyed time at number one on the Billboard chart. The rest of the album Villains contains a mix of sounds. The Verve Pipe carved their own niche in the music world.

Shawn Colvin is a great folk-pop songwriter. She sings immaculately conceived melodies and writes about tricky matters of the head and heart. Colvin's debut more than 10 years ago won her a Grammy with "Steady On." But her single "Sunny Came Home" was a bona fide hit, and her album A Few Small Repairs was a mega-seller and stayed on the charts for more than a year.

Country star Tim McGraw, whose last two albums — Not a Moment Too Soon and All I Want — sold a combined seven million copies, has built his career on a heartbreak ballad. In the two years since All I Want hit the charts, McGraw became a millionaire, married country music's Faith Hill, had a daughter, and gained respect as a producer. His fourth album, Everywhere, reflects these changes in his life. The hit album chronicles a man in transition.

Jewel began writing songs when she was 17. Now, at 23, she's a star. Her first album, Pieces of You, was released in 1995 and became an instant and prolonged hit, spending well over a year on the top charts. She was raised in Alaska where she began performing at the age of five. Her junior and senior years in high school were spent at the Interlochen Fine Arts Academy in Michigan. She then went to San Diego, which she now calls home. However, Jewel makes a point of maintaining a solid connection to her roots in Homer. Alaska — she carries a container of genuine Alaska dirt whenever she travels.

Garth Brooks' entrance into the world of country music wasn't as easy as it looked. After graduating from Oklahoma State University with a degree in advertising, he headed for Nashville to follow in the footsteps of his musical hero George Strait. His first efforts met with total failure. About two years later, he took another shot at it, appearing in an amateur talent showcase as a last-minute replacement. That was about 10 years ago. His recent concert in Central Park in New York City attracted hundreds of thousands of fans.

Despite comparisons with earlier groups like Menudo and New Kids on the Block, the Spice Girls have jumped into superstardom, grabbing the adoration that comes with overnight worldwide fame. With only one album to their credit, the five young women took the world by storm with their saucy antics and innumerable shouts of "Girl power!" The five stars go by the names Geri, Mel B, Emma, Victoria, and Mel C. They got together in 1994 and cut their first single a year later. Their album Spice hit the charts in early 1997 and stayed there all year.

Top News Stories of the Year

Britain and the world bid farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, on a sparkling September morning with a grand tribute rich in pageantry. After her death in a car crash in Paris on Aug. 31, 1997, the country witnessed an astonishing outpouring of grief that forced a repentant monarchy to join in the kind of full celebration of Diana's life that the millions of people who flooded into London demanded. Her sons, William, 15, and Harry, 12, stood in attendance, joined by their father, Prince Charles, and her brother, Earl Spencer, as the body was taken into Westminster Abbey. Millions packed the city for the funeral. It was a crowd unmatched since the end of World War II. More than a million bouquets of flowers by official count were stacked outside the royal palaces.

Mother Teresa was among the most well-known and highly respected women in the world in the later half of the twentieth century. In 1948, she founded a religious order of In 1948, she founded a religious order of Roman Catholic nuns in Calcutta, India, called the Missionaries of Charity. Through this order, she dedicated her life to helping the poor, the sick, and the dying around the world, particularly those in India. Her selfless work with the needy brought her much acclaim and many awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She died at the age of 87 on Sept. 5, 1997, of heart failure at her convent in Calcutta. Calcutta.

Often called Israel's first American-style politician, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu steadfastly rejected the land-for-peace bargain with the Palestinians, which was the backbone of the 1993 Oslo peace accords. In the wake of his hard-line stance, there were dozens of deaths by terrorism throughout Israel. In the summer of 1997, two suicide bombings in Jerusalem, elaimed by the militant Muslim group Hamas, drove Netanyahu to halt peace proceedings indefinitely. At the age of 48, he was the youngest Israeli prime minister ever.

Yasser Arafat was chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization and president of the Palestinian National Authority. He was one of the key leaders in trying to maintain peace in the Middle East. His 1993 handshake of peace with Yitzhak Rabin promised mutual recognition between the Palestinians and the state of Israel. Under the agreement, Arafat assumed leadership of Arabs within Israel's occupied territories. The 68-year-old leader played a very important role in keeping peace in the Middle East.

The roving vehicle Sojourner, the first mobile explorer to land on another planet, descended upon Mars in 1997 and gathered soil and rock samples. Overcoming communications trouble and other setbacks, the Sojourner left the Mars Pathfinder landing craft. The robotic rover's six metal wheels rolled slowly down a ramp and came to a stop on the surface. The Sojourner, which was about the size of a microwave oven, began crawling around the surface of Mars, transmitting a flood of information to scientists back on Earth.

United States Secretary of State Madeleine Albright was the most visible and active secretary of state since Henry Kissinger. She was the highest-ranking woman in the history of the U.S. government, and was admired and respected by the diplomatic corps. Previously, she served as President Clinton's ambassador to the United Nations and in foreign advisory positions for former President Jimmy Carter. The on-going troubles in the Middle East kept the 60-year-old diplomat busy from the day she was sworn in to the top job at the State Department.

Attorney General Janet Reno was the first woman attorney general of the United States. She was first nominated by President Clinton in 1993, and she was appointed again in 1997. A graduate of Harvard Law School, Reno, 59, focused on crime prevention among the youth of the country and stressed early intervention to keep children away from gangs, drugs, and violence. Late in 1997 she unveiled an advertising campaign urging the nation's youth to become involved in neighborhood crime prevention and community service,

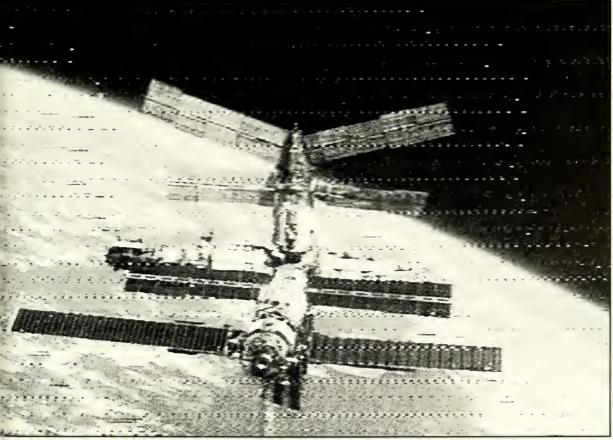

The U.S. Senate Governmental Affairs Committee investigated alleged campaign fund raising abuses by Democrats in the 1996 presidential campaign. The committee chairman was Sen. Fred Thompson, a Republican from Tennessee. The committee heard testimony from a wide variety of government officials and big-money political contributors. One of the key questions was the role of foreign money in politics — especially the presidential campaign of President Bill Clinton and Vice-President Al Gore. Political pressure was put on Attorney General Reno to appoint an independent counsel to review whether the President or Vice-President did anything illegal in raising money for the Democratic party.

The 11,000 residents of the Caribbean island of Montserrat witnessed first-hand the devastation that an active volcano can cause. The volcano belched ash and small rocks over several days in September and forced more than two-thirds of the population to evacuate the island. A shortage of housing was one of the biggest problems, especially for those evacuating the central communities of the island. The volcano on the British protectorate island became active about two years ago, and the latest eruptions caused most of the population to flee to Britain or other Caribbean islands.

The first component of the Mir space station was launched in 1986. Except for two brief gaps, the space station has been manned continuously ever since. It has made more than 60,000 trips around Earth. In 1994, the U.S. and Russia agreed to conduct joint missions aboard the station. A docking module was attached to Mir, allowing American space shuttles to link up with the Russian station. The main Mir module — which provides living quarters for up to six people — has been orbiting for nearly 12 years, which is seven years longer than planned. These joint U.S.-Russian missions are the first phase of a program to build an International Space Station, which is scheduled to be in orbit by the year 2002.

First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton turned 50 on Oct. 26, 1997. She was the most famous of the female "baby boomers" celebrating their 50th birthday during 1997. During her husband's first terms as President, she took a leading role in health-care reform. Now, after nearly two years in the wings, she was quietly returned to center stage to begin a program on child care. One compelling reason for her to move on the to the next project was an empty nest — her daughter Chelsea had left home for college. Hillary seemed ready for new challenges and projects.

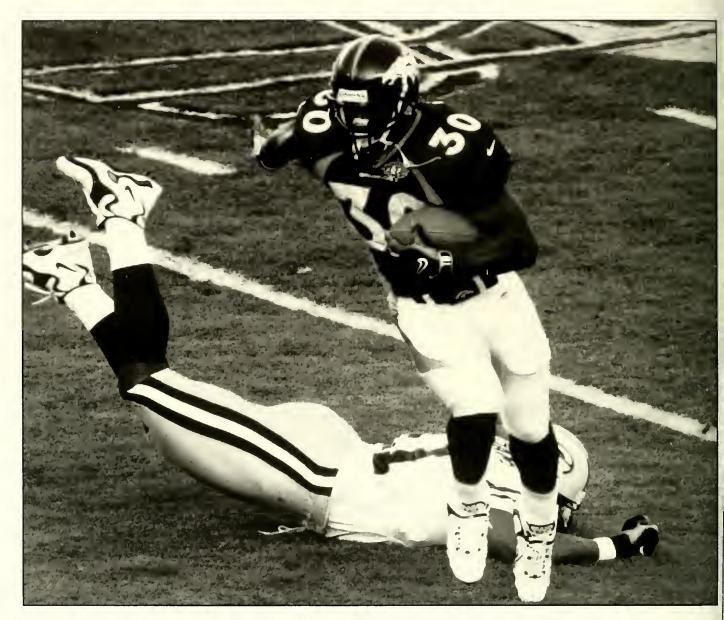

The President's teenage daughter left home in September. Chelsea Clinton went off to college some 3,000 miles from home. The 18-year-old National Merit Scholarship finalist accepted an offer from Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif. Choosing this palm-studded campus 30 miles south of San Francisco was a bit of a bold stroke for the first daughter. Friends saw it as a reflection of her eagerness to escape the White House "bubble" and shed the pressures of Washington life. Chelsea agonized between Stanford and Princeton right up to the weekend before she made her decision. Her Secret Service detail will try their best to make her stay as normal as possible.

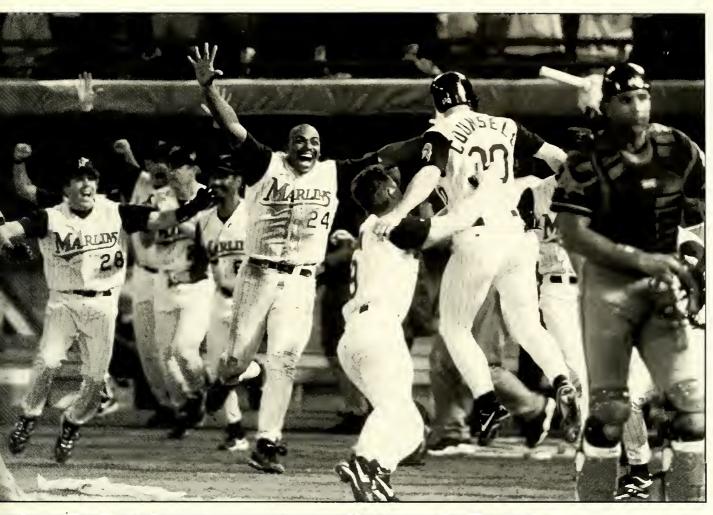

President Bill Clinton was the first Democrat in 60 years to be elected to a second term. A centrist New Democrat, he transformed his once beleaguered party. Under his presidency, the United States enjoyed the lower rate of inflation since the early 1960s, and he was the first president in 17 years to submit a balanced budget to Congress. His vice-president, Al Gore, was considered a powerful vice-president and was the president's closest advisor. The 49-year-old Gore is considered a favorite for the Democratic presidential nomination in the year 2000. However, a year after their re-election, both men were under close scrutiny for campaign finance violations.

Top Sports Stories

In one of the most competitive games in Super Bowl history, John Elway and Terrell Davis led the Denver Broncos to a 31-24 upset of the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXII. The Bronco's first National Football League championship ended the American Conference's 13-year losing streak in the Super Bowl.

The Florida Marlins became major league baseball's world champions in 1997, beating the Cleveland Indians in the World Series. Just five years old, the Marlins tied the Indians in the ninth inning of the seventh game and went on to win it all in the eleventh inning with a score of 3-2. The Indians last won the Series in 1948.

The WNBA — Women's National Basketball Association — completed its inaugural season with the Houston Comets defeating the New York Liberty for the championship. As the season came to a close, the WNBA announced that the eight-team league would grow to 10 teams in 1998. If it all works out, the Comets will jump to the Western Conference with Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento, and Utah. The new teams — Detroit and Washington, D.C. — will join the East with Charlotte, Cleveland, and New York.

Phish has established an impressive reputation for tireless touring, dazzling improvisation, and innovative rock and roll. The Vermont-based quartet is the reigning "jam" band in the land, boasting one of the most devoted followings in all of rock. The group was assembled at the University of Vermont by guitarists Trey Anastasio III and Jeff Holdsworth. One of their claims to fame was to have the ice cream mavens Ben & Jerry honor the group with its own flavor - Phish Food a tantalizing combination of chocolate icc cream, caramel, marshmallow swirls, and fishshaped chocolate chips.

John Denver, whose optimistic songs catapulted him to fame during the 1970s, died instantly when his experimental plane crashed into Monterey Bay, California, on Oct. 12, 1997. The 53-year-old singer had eight platinum records to his credit when his home-built plane crashed. "Rocky Mountain High" and "Sunshine on my Shoulders" were two of his trademark songs. "His music sprang from feelings of love," said Hal Than, his long-time manager.

Duncan Sheik is an artist for whom there are no easy comparisons. His debut album Duncan Sheik mixes the songs he wrote with a strong voice and his acoustic guitar. As one critic put it: "He carefully introduces a variety of musical elements, including some powerful string arrangement, to create a musical environment that defies categorization." Duncan amassed a wide variety of musical experience even before reaching high school, playing classical and jazz at summer music camps.

The Dave Matthews Band has demonstrated over the course of three albums and several years of extensive touring that it has staying power on the record charts. Combining elements of rock, jazz, folk, and world beat, the group is soulful and subtle in its harmonies and rhythms. Matthews was born in Johannesburg, South Africa, and moved to Virginia about 10 years ago. He formed the group in 1990. They had intended to come up with a "proper" name for the group, but the name stuck before they had time to change it.

How did a trio of adolescent boys from America's heartland manage to hit stardom in the music world? By being young, cute, blonde, and happy, the brothers Hanson became the newest kids on the pop charts. The band's infectious single "MMMBop" and their album Middle of Nowhere flooded the airwaves around the world Isaac, 16, Taylor, 14, and Zac, 11, grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma. But their success didn't come overnight. The youngsters dealt with their share of rejection slips before they were discovered in 1996 at the Kansas State Fair.

Farewell Alon Porter,

Alan Porter, Professor of Music

As Methodist College concluded its 38th academic year, one of its most talented senior faculty members decided to retire. Alan Porter, professor of music and conductor of the Methodist College Chorus for the last 35 years, has had a distinguished career at Methodist.

Porter taught most of the music courses, including voice and conducting, established several vocal ensembles, directed the Fine Arts division, and served as clinician and adjudicator for the North Carolina Chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing. He has also directed the choir at Hay Street United Methodist Church and served on the boards of the Fayetteville Symphony, Cape Fear Regional Theatre, and the Dance Theater of Fayetteville.

A native of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, Porter came to Methodist College in the fall of 1963. His wife Elaine also joined the faculty that year as an instructor of French. A lyric tenor, Porter studied voice and sang professionally with the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera Company in his late teens. After spending four years in the Air Force, he enrolled at Mount Union College in Ohio, where he earned a Bachelor of Music degree with honors. He received his master's degree at the University of Illinois with performance honors.

Fayetteville residents have learned over the years that when Alan Porter gives a recital, directs a musical, or conducts a performance of Handel's Messiah, it will be a memorable event. In the fall of 1991, after a sabbatical that took him to Europe to study the life and work of Mozart, he directed a moving performance of Mozart's Requiem before a capacity crowd in Reeves Auditorium. In 1992, he organized the Cumberland Oratorio Singers. In the spring of 1996, he led the Methodist College Chorus on a concert tour of France that ended in Fayetteville's sister city of St. Avold.

People who have sung for Alan Porter or listened to his choral groups know that he expects a lot. Members of the Methodist College Chorus and ensembles like Rainbow's End have had to memorize dozens of musical selections, some of them quite difficult. But Porter also has a big heart, and has been known to shed tears of joy and gratitude when the college chorus or the Hay Street United Methodist Choir mastered a particularly challenging work. He takes great pride in the achievements of his current and former students.

For 35 years of distinguished service to his profession, his church, and the fine arts in this community, Methodist College proudly honored Alan Porter by awarding him a Methodist College Medallion. He will be missed.
